London Youth: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Beatrice updated re: Getting Ready for the Games, including a session with the government's new Legacy Champion, Sir Steve Redgrave, who met with young people including three DareLondoners to find out what their viewpoints are regarding the Games' Legacy • Christian update re: Getting Ready for the Arts, a proposed new initiative that London Youth is seeking funding for, to develop and deliver arts-based programmes through its youth clubs • Dami updated re: recent board meeting and Future Jobs Fund • Coelle updated re: Positive Change launch – flagship programme for London Youth • Access to Nature – Tyrone has volunteered to be involved in this project GLA: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Christian updated re: Alcohol Awareness project, where members of the Peer Outreach Team have spent the night in specially constructed temporary A&Es to see how they cope with the problem; potential for this project to become a partnership between Peer Outreach Team and DareLondon? • Rebecca updated re: Mayor's Young Ambassador – this looks like it is going ahead and we would like to offer DareLondoners the chance to put themselves forward for this in a formal hustings process – more information to follow – perhaps to take place during January's board meeting • Rebecca updated re: young inspectors – many different experiences being had by the group – some of them not very good and some of them excellent Summer Uni London (from April to be known as Futureversity) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Paddy updated re: Brand Launch – many thanks to the DareLondoners who

	showed such professionalism and were great ambassadors on the evening* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Paddy updated re: Summer Uni Summit – Rosie represented DareLondon and delivered an excellent icebreaker session which worked very well – thank you • *Sarah D introduced the background to the Futureversity brand and showed the video to the board. Main points – aim to raise young people’s aspirations year-road, expanding nationally, looking to young people to help us fundraise. DareLondoners are invited to feedback regarding the brand implementation informally over the next couple of months and a more formal piece of work will be done around this in the January board meeting. 	DareLondoners
5	Feedback from the residential <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ayo gave an overview of the residential weekend for the benefit of those DareLondoners who were unable to be there; summary – everyone had a great time and gained a lot from the weekend – mostly confidence to push us forward and achieve more!
6	Parliamentary Outreach <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Alasdair delivered an informative session – presentation already forwarded - Session focused on what Parliament is, why it is not Government, Parliament’s role and how groups (or individuals) can get involved in the decision making - DareLondoners please continue to suggest ideas for future speakers at board meetings - More information and other events will appear in the Opportunities Bulletin 	DareLondoners
7	Electoral Commission <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Information on this project and the opportunity to sign up to vote – carry forward to January 2010
